

Colin Edelman KC

Year of Call: 1977 Silk: 1995

Recipient of Lifetime Achievement Award at Chambers UK Bar Awards 2023.

Listed on The Legal 500 Private Practice Powerlist 2023 for Arbitration.

Colin accepts appointments as both an arbitrator and mediator in matters involving high value complex commercial disputes with an emphasis on insurance, reinsurance, professional indemnity, and energy.

Chambers & Partners rank Colin as one of only four 'Star Individual' arbitrators at the London Bar.

Colin has been and continues to be appointed in arbitral disputes under a variety of different rules, including LCIA, DIFC, ICC, ARIAS, UNCITRAL as well as numerous ad hoc references.

Additionally, Colin has acted as a neutral evaluator and provided written determinations.

During his distinguished career as counsel, from which he retired at the end of 2022, Colin has been involved in a significant number of high-profile matters affecting the London and international insurance markets, including major natural disasters and other catastrophic losses and successfully representing the FCA in the Covid-19 Business Interruption Insurance Test Case in the High Court and Supreme Court. Colin has also written and lectured extensively on issues affecting the insurance and reinsurance market.

He previously sat as Deputy High Court Judge (Queen's Bench Division) and as Deputy High Court Judge in the Commercial Court.

Colin was appointed a Director of Bar Mutual in 2007, was appointed a Deputy Chair in 2009 and then served as Chair of the Board of Directors of Bar Mutual Indemnity Fund Ltd from 2013 to 2022 (the end of his 15-year tenure as a director).

Colin was voted the 'Chambers UK' Insurance Silk of the Year' in 2007, 2010, 2015 and 2017 and was frequently shortlisted in other years. He was voted the 'Chambers UK' Professional Negligence Silk of the Year' in 2014 and was shortlisted for Barrister of the Year at The Lawyer Awards in 2021. Furthermore, several of Colin's cases have been listed by The Lawyer as Top Cases of the Year.
