

Dina Lander

Year of Call: 2022

Dina joined Chambers as a pupil in October 2024. Dina's principal areas of practice are corporate and commercial law and equity, with a focus on taxation law.

Dina was called to the Bar in Sydney Australia in 2022. Prior to joining the Bar in Sydney Dina worked as a prosecutor at the Australian Taxation Office and an associate (judicial assistant) at the Federal Circuit Court of Australia.

Dina is currently completing Masters in Taxation at the University of Oxford and has over twenty years of experience in the financial services industry, as well as an MSc in Finance, having initially been trained on Wall Street as a mergers and acquisitions analyst.

With a particular interest in international commercial arbitration, Dina volunteers at the annual VIS International Commercial Arbitration moot in Vienna.
