

Ishaani Shrivastava

Year of Call: 2010

Ishaani's principal areas of practice are employment, public, and tax law.

After being called, and before joining the Bar, Ishaani worked as a Kaufman Fellow at the AIRE Centre in EU and human rights law, and at Leigh Day & Co solicitors in international and group claims. She holds a first-class B.A. in Law, and an LL.M. from the University of Cambridge, and an LL.M. from Harvard Law School.

In 2019, Ishaani was appointed to the Attorney General's C Panel of Counsel.

Recommendations

"I found Ishaani to be well-prepared, very knowledgeable and an excellent speaker." - Rebecca Perlman, Associate, Herbert Smith Freehills (2016)

Employment

Ishaani has experience in High Court litigation, as well as employment tribunal work. She is currently instructed in the first case in which the EAT has given permission to appeal directly to the Supreme Court, on the issue of the scope of diplomatic immunity.

She was recently instructed on an injunction concerning industrial action, on behalf of the defendants, in the High Court. She has also advised claimants and defendants on matters concerning breaches of restrictive covenants, TUPE transfers, and confidentiality.

Ishaani has extensive experience of equal pay work. She provided advice in this area to a public broadcaster, on an ongoing basis, over several months. She regularly appears as sole counsel in multi-day hearings. Recent cases have involved age, sex, sexual orientation and race discrimination, as well as gross misconduct dismissals for sexual harassment.

Ishaani regularly conducts investigations, either as sole or junior counsel. She recently acted as sole independent investigator for a regulatory body, and as junior counsel on investigations into public sector bodies and financial services institutions.

She acts for a wide range of clients, both claimant and respondent, including: the BBC, British Airways, British Telecommunications plc, Coca Cola European Partners, MacMillan Cancer Support, the General Dental Council, Lloyds of London, NHS Trusts, the NSPCC and the Security Industry Authority. She has acted for defendants in The Construction Industry Vetting Information Group Litigation with Christopher Stone.

In conjunction with Pro Bono Community, Ishaani runs seminars providing comprehensive training to junior lawyers assisting the pro bono departments of their firms, including CMS, Herbert Smith Freehills, and Shearman & Sterling.

Administrative and Public Law

Ishaani was appointed to the Attorney General's C Panel of Counsel in March 2019.

Ishaani also works heavily with individual claimants, charities and NGOs including the AIRE Centre, Amnesty International, and the Media Legal Defence Initiative.

Ishaani has particular experience in judicial review, acting as junior counsel to Graham Read QC in DHL International (UK) Limited v Ofcom [2016] EWHC 938 (Admin), and more recently for the GLD.

She recently intervened in the US Supreme Court on behalf of the UK Foreign and Commonwealth Office, in a case concerning a UK national facing the death penalty. The intervention addressed the right to a fair trial.

She intervened in the Economic Community of West African States Court of Justice, on behalf of the Media Legal Defence Initiative. The intervention addressed freedom of expression.

Ishaani is instructed by HMRC, as junior to Chris Stone, in the appeal against the decision of the FTT in Banks v HMRC, a case concerning allegations of political discrimination under Article 14 of the Human Rights Act, taken together with Article 1 of Protocol No. 1.

She regularly advises and appears in cases concerning the free movement of persons under Directive 2004/38/EC and the Immigration Regulations, before the Social Security and Immigration and Asylum Tribunal.

Ishaani has also been instructed in education cases, as junior to Talia Barsam.

Ishaani acted as a junior junior in the Kenyan Emergency Group Litigation brought by over 40,000 claimants in respect of their experiences in Kenya in the 1950s. She assisted panel counsel in drafting individual defences, preparing cross-examination of test claimants and medical experts, as well as researching historical legislation, limitation issues and questions of international law.

Ishaani is a key contributor to the Annual Rule of Law Forum for South Eastern Europe, supported by the UK Foreign and Commonwealth Office, and attended by ECtHR judges, all levels of the judiciary, lawyers, and NGO workers from Albania, Bosnia, Croatia, Kosovo, Macedonia, Montenegro and Serbia.

Ishaani has written the following publications, presented before the Forum:

Ishaani was instrumental in establishing the European Human Rights Database for South East Europe.

Ishaani is a regular contributor to the Administrative Court Digest.

Tax

Ishaani is instructed by HMRC, as junior to Chris Stone, in the appeal against the decision of the FTT in Banks v HMRC, a case concerning allegations of political discrimination under Article 14 of the Human Rights Act, taken together with Article 1 of Protocol No. 1.

Ishaani has previously acted as sole counsel for the National Crime Agency, and as junior to Akash Nawbatt QC and Christopher Stone in Gaines Cooper, the leading case on the interpretation and application of HMRC guidance on individual residence.

Investigations

Ishaani acts across employment, discrimination, administrative and public, human rights and tax law. She regularly conducts investigations, either as sole or junior counsel. She recently acted as sole independent investigator for a regulatory body, and as junior counsel on investigations into public sector bodies and financial services institutions.
